DON'T FORGET TO DECLARE YOUR CURRENCY AND VALUABLES

IMPORT AND EXPORT OF CURRENCY

Traveling to or from Algeria? Be sure to follow currency declaration procedures for a smooth customs experience.

! The physical import and export of currency is strictly subject to a declaration to Algerian Customs services

Obligation to Declare Currency When Entering or Leaving the National Territory :

- Algerian nationals are required to declare imported or exported currency to customs if the amount exceeds 1,000 Euros or its equivalent in other currencies.
- Foreign nationals are required to declare imported or exported currency to customs if the amount exceeds 5,000 Euros or its equivalent in other currencies.

AUTHORIZED AMOUNTS FOR EXPORT :

It is permitted to take out any amount in foreign currency banknotes or traveler's checks, under the following conditions :

- A maximum amount of 7,500 Euros in cash (or its equivalent in another foreign currency) per calendar year, provided a bank debit notice is presented for any withdrawal exceeding the regulatory declaration thresholds, from a foreign currency account held in Algeria.
- Any amount covered by a foreign exchange authorization from the Bank of Algeria.
- International bank cards.

✗ NB : Non-residents must present a bank receipt proving the exchange of part or all of the declared amount in foreign currency (exceeding €1,000) upon entry into Algerian territory.

Entry and Exit of Algerian Dinar (DZD):

Only resident travelers are allowed to bring in and take out Algerian banknotes, up to a maximum of 10,000 DZD.

ALSO DECLARE YOUR VALUABLES

VALUABLES INCLUDE:
PERSONAL JEWELRY MADE OF GOLD, PLATINUM, SILVER, PALLADIUM, OR OTHER PRECIOUS MATERIALS

DECLARATION IS REQUIRED IF THE TOTAL WEIGHT EXCEEDS :

- 100 GRAMS UPON ENTRY
- 150 GRAMS UPON EXIT

Failure to Declare or False Declarations Constitute an Offense.
Such infractions may lead to criminal prosecution.

KEY POINTS TO REMEMBER :

- ✗ Currency declaration is mandatory.
- ✗ Travelers must submit their currency declaration, primarily via electronic means, prior to arriving at the customs office.
- ✗ This declaration may also be made in writing, upon entry or exit, in accordance with the form templates established by current regulations.
- ✗ The currency declaration form is valid for a single stay only.
- ✗ Any declared amount must be presented to customs officers for inspection purposes.
- ✗ The shipment of foreign currency banknotes, coins, or any bearer instruments via freight or mail is prohibited.
- ✗ The currency declaration must be made before crossing the designated customs control area.
- ✗ A traveler who crosses the limits of the designated customs control area without having completed this formality beforehand is considered to have nothing to declare or to be carrying amounts below the declaration thresholds.

Travel with peace of mind by complying with customs regulations!
